DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This rowhouse is similar to 1303 N. Charles with the following exceptions:

The old storefront cornice above the first story has been obscured (or removed) by the presence of a large sign.

The second story right bay window has been boarded.

Third and fourth story windows in the right bay are small, paired round arch and single hung. In the fourth story, these windows have round arch, one piece transoms.

Fourth story left bay windows are contained within a bay window which is topped by a wrought iron balcony. The second story bay window has a transom, but the one on the third has none. The window above the fourth story bay windows balcony is double hung 1/1 with one piece transom, contained within a stilted round arch.

The top of the facade is capped by a finial.
